

Heraklion 28/06/2024

PRESS RELEASE

ReNeuroCell Therapeutics, IMBB-FORTH and University of Crete's new spin-off, receives award at the START Smart Forum

The new spinoff company at IMBB-FORTH and University of Crete, ReNeuroCell Therapeutics, which is actively involved in the development of new cell therapies against spinal cord injuries and in the reversal of paralysis by implementing 3D neuro-implants of advances biomaterials hosted in human neural stem cells, received an award at the Start Smart Forum of spinoff companies of the MIT Innovation Forum. The company is actively involved in the development of new cell therapies against spinal cord injuries and in the reversal of paralysis by implementing 3D neuroimplants of advances biomaterials hosted in human neural stem cells. The company was founded by A. Gravanis, D. Tzeranis and G. Charalampopoulos, researchers at IMBB-FORTH and professors at the University of Crete.

Nikolaou Plastira 100
Vassilika Vouton
GR 700 13 Heraklion
Crete, Greece
Tel. +30 2810391700
Fax +30 2810391101
Email: imbb@imbb.forth.gr